Christmas Message 2014

We thank God for yet another year to celebrate Jesus’ birth on earth. This Christmas, let us take time out to reflect on the purpose of His coming to dwell among us as flesh. Let us give consideration as to how well we have carried out our mandate of reaching others for Him.

Let us resolve that in our celebrations we will seize the moment to reach out to families, friends and those on the periphery.

Christmas provides a golden opportunity to break down barriers in the name of Jesus. Many strangers visit churches during this season. It is for us to befriend and make them welcome in our midst. What better way to grow the family of God.

This is a time to gather and acknowledge the greatest gift of all time. God’s physical expression of love, salvation and everlasting life in the person of Jesus Christ. Embrace it with joy.

From my family to yours, may this Christmas be a most blessed and joyous occasion for you and yours.
